TRUSTEES REPORT

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

There have been some significant financial transactions upon which to report since the Company was incorporated.

LEGAL STATUS

Access-Ability Communications Technology ('AACT') is a company limited by guarantee and was incorporated on 16 August 2005 and registered as a charity with the Charity Commission on 15 March 2006.

OBJECTIVES

The charity has a broad remit to promote and advance the education and training of children, young people and adults who are subject to any disability associated with speech, language and different forms of communication. Its aim is to achieve this through the use of information and communications technology. In addition it seeks raise the awareness of the public of the challenges faced by those with these disabilities.

REVIEW OF DEVELOPMENTS, ACTIVITIES AND ACHIEVEMENTS

The directors have met at regular intervals to devise and refine a strategic plan to achieve AACT's charitable objectives and continue to seek funding for projects matching AACT's charitable objects. The directors still recognise the difficulties with which they are faced, but derive confidence from their success in attracting some funds towards their Appeal of £200K and working in partnership with other charities similar to AACT to implement specific projects within AACT's charitable objectives.

THE TRUSTEES

The trustees who served during the period to period to year to 31 August 2008 are shown on page 3. The overall strategic direction of the charity is determined by the Trustees of AACT. The role of the Trustee is one of guidance and governance. They are responsible for overseeing the activities and finances of AACT and ensuring that the best interests of the charity are protected and promoted at all times. They are also responsible for ensuring any income is spent fairly and appropriately. Included in their responsibilities is the setting of the strategic direction of AACT, with considerable input from the Founder and where appropriate staff and advisers in general, and maintaining the long term viability of the charity.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE TRUSTEES

Company Law and the Charities Act requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity at the end of the year and of the surplus or deficiency for the year then ended. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to select suitable accounting policies apply them on a consistent basis, making judgments and estimates that are prudent and reasonable. The trustees must also prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the charity will continue in business.

PROFESSOR M.J.C. CRABBE

EXAMINER'S UNQUALIFIED REPORT (FOR A COMPANY CHARITY)

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of AACT (Access-Ability Communications Technology) Charitable Company.

I report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 31 August 2008, which are set out on pages 1 to 5.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.
